MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Sam Goldberg, State Department, Concerning the Case Amendment

1. Sam Goldberg, State Department, called to say that, per our conversation the other day, State has had discussions with Senator Clifford Case (R., N.J.) on the application of the Case amendment to intelligence agreements. It started with an inquiry from Senator James Abourezk (D., S. Dak.) and his Subcommittee on Separation of Powers of the Senate Judiciary Committee. State briefed Senator Charles McC. Mathias (R., Md.), who is the Ranking Minority Member. Senator Mathias talked with Senator Abourezk and came back with the suggestion that State provide summaries of foreign intelligence agreements. State then went to Senator Case. Steve Brian, of the Committee's Minority staff, subsequently got together with Art Rovine, Office of the Legal Adviser, Treaty Affairs. Brian said from Senator Case's point of view that summaries would not be sufficient and as far as Goldberg knows it is still up in the air.

2. Goldberg and I briefly discussed the case of [redacted] 25X1

25X1 [redacted] about whom Senator Stuart Symington (D., Mo.) called me. Goldberg said he would have someone from the Special Consular's office call me.
